

News blog

This web application will display news via REST API and add new news by users. For this, users must register and login. Also, I will add moderator for moderation the news. News will display after moderator check.

Beans that are going to be registered in my application context:

User

User controller

User Service

User repository

Post

Post controller

Post service

Config

